SALE OF RESIDUAL (NO. 6) FUEL OIL

SCOPE: The City is selling approximately 677,000 gallons of residual (No. 6) fuel from its Burdick Station.

DESCRIPTION: The Burdick Station is located at 700 E. Bischeld in Grand Island, NE. The fuel oil is stored in above ground storage tanks. There are three (3) tanks - #3 tank with approximately 51,878 gallons, and #5 tank 110,820 gallons, both levels are below the suction for using the Station transfer pump, the #4 storage tank contains approximately 514,494 gallons. The heat exchanger for the #4 storage tank cannot be used, due to a leak. The fuel oil will need to be removed with heating and pumping system provided by the bidder. The Contractor shall provide all transportation for the fuel and personnel for connection of loading hoses. Trucks and drivers shall be licensed and permitted for over the road transportation of fuel oil. All EPA regulations shall be strictly adhered to while transferring fuel oil.

Firm bids based on a unit price per pound shall be included. The approximate amount to be sold is 677,000 gallons; however, payment shall be based on the actual amount transferred. The Contractor shall provide certified scale tickets for each truck load of fuel oil. The bid shall also include the estimated unloading time required by the Contractor.
